

Board Directors Recruitment

CSCLS Seeks New Candidates Beginning Summer 2009

CSCLS is seeking interested community members to fill board positions. CSCLS needs board members with professional expertise in finance and accounting, education, business, advocacy, law, human services, real estate, community networking as well as a willingness to lead CSCLS programs.

CSCLS Board members are responsible for planning, programs, finance, personnel, community relations, and service on committees. Potential board member roles include but are not limited to:

1. Provide input for long range goals
2. Approve long range goals
3. Approve annual objectives
4. Monitor achievement of goals and objectives
5. Evaluate programs
6. Finalize and approve budget
7. Solicit contributions in current support and/or capital campaigns
8. Approve expenditures outside authorized budget
9. Ensure annual audit of agency
10. Employ Principal
11. Decision to add staff
12. Interpret agency to the community
13. Provide agency linkage with other community organizations
14. Appoint committee members
15. Call committee chairperson(s) to urge him/her into action
16. Promote attendance at board/committee meetings
17. Recruit new board members
18. Plan agenda for board meetings
19. Plan and propose committee organization
20. Sign legal documents
21. Settle clash between committees

Applications are available on the CSCLS website www.cschineseschool.org for candidates who desire to serve on the CSCLS Board of Directors beginning June 2009. Deadline for applications is May 5, 2009.